Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 1, to Saturday October 5, 1799.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of September 1799,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament;" it is enacted, That from and after the passing of the said Act, and until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are hereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, whatever may be the general Average Price of any of the said Sorts of Corn, or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland, respectively from Time to Time, when and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively, of any British or Foreign Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Big, Peas, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt, made thereof, or any Indian Corn, or Maize, or Meal, made thereof; and to permit, generally, the Importation into England or Scotland respectively, of any Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel, belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also the taking out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, of any such Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition or Permission, either in Part, or in the Whole, (if Circumstances shall appear so to require,) any Thing in any Act, or Part of any Act, to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions therein mentioned, and hereinafter contained: His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in him by the said Act, has thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, and until further Order, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or other Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Big, Peas, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof.

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation, from this Kingdom, of any Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour that shall have been imported and warehoused in the Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in an Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported;" and shall not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, nor to prevent the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, from this Kingdom, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the last-mentioned Act, or either of them, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places, as is allowed by the said Two Acts, passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at such Times as any of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, are prohibited to be exported, in consequence of the Provisions contained in the Two last-mentioned Acts, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as are by the said Two Acts, or by either of them, in any such Case required and imposed.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Date of this present Order, and until further Order, it shall be lawful to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel, belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever: And also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of September 1799,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to encourage the Trade in the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient Mode of performing Quarantine, and for reducing the Duty granted by an Act of the last Session on Goods the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar," it is declared to be expedient to permit Goods and Merchandize to be imported from the Levant, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, without having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Ports or Places mentioned in an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas." And it is enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to grant Licence and Permission for the Importation into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, coming from the Levant Seas, without clean Bills of Health, without such Goods and Merchandizes having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Places mentioned in the said recited Act; and that all such Goods and Merchandizes shall and may be admitted to an Entry in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions, with respect to opening and airing such Goods and Merchandizes previous to the landing thereof, and to the Performance of Quarantine by the Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported, as His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall by any Order or Orders to be issued as aforesaid, make, prescribe, or direct: any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas, by the Orders of His Majesty in Council now subsisting, all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, are subject to a Quarantine of Forty Days, and are required to unpack, open, and air their Cargoes at such Places, and for such Space of Time as are expressed in the said Orders: And whereas it appears to His Majesty, that it will tend to the greater Security of the public Health, and the better Prevention of all Danger of Infection being brought into this Kingdom, if such Ships as shall not be furnished with clean Bills of Health, be permitted to perform their Quarantine at one Place only, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, now arrived, or which may hereafter arrive from the Levant at any Port or Place in this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, without clean Bills of Health, and without having performed Quarantine in any of the Ports of the Mediterranean mentioned in the above-recited Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second; and all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever, liable to Quarantine, and not being furnished with clean Bills of Health, from whatever Port or Place the same shall come, shall (until further Order) perform their Quarantine in Standgate Creek, and no where else; and that no Person from on board any such Ship or Vessel be permitted to land or come on Shore, until discharged from such Quarantine.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes imported in any Ship or Vessel arriving without a clean Bill of Health, be admitted to Entry in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, until such Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes shall have been unpacked, opened, and aired, on board One of the Hulks stationed in Standgate Creek for the Purpose of airing Goods subject to Quarantine, for the Space of Forty Days, according to such Regulations as have been established in that Behalf by any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, touching Goods liable to perform Quarantine; or any other Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions which shall be made or given by any Order of His Majesty in Council with respect to opening and airing such Goods and Merchandizes, previous to the landing thereof; and to the Performance of Quarantine by the Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Lancaster, September 10, 1799.

Whitehall, October 4, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that between the Night of the 28th and the Morning of the 30th Ultimo, the Exchequer-Bill Office in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, was feloniously broke open by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and the undermentioned Bank Notes and other Articles were stolen, viz. No. 6923, dated 5th January 1799, 50 l.; No. 8096, dated 23d August 1799, 10 l.; Nos. 342, 343, 344, 345, dated 1st August 1799, 20 l. each; also several other Bank Notes of 10 l. and 20 l. each, the Numbers of which are at present unknown; a Gold enamelled Ring of Frederick the Second of Prussia; a Gold Sardonyx Ring, the Head of Cleopatra; a small plain Gold Seal; a Pair of plain Silver Shoe Buckles; a Pair of Stone Ditto; Two Pair of Stone Knee Buckles, One Pair Round, the other Oval; a Queen Elizabeth's Shilling.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the same,) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplices or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by William James Cooke.

General Post-Office, Sept. 18, 1799.

Notice is hereby given, that Letters addressed to Persons serving with the Army under the Command of Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of York, will be received at the Ship-Letter Office Twice instead of Once in the Week, viz. on Tuesday and Friday, from Ten in the Morning until Ten o'Clock at Night, and not on Thursday as mentioned in the Advertisement from the Office of the 10th Instant.

And that such Letters will be regularly forwarded in Vessels from Tarmouth to the Helder Point on the same Days as the Mails are sent to Cuxhaven.

An Half Rate of Postage, under the Act of the Thirty-ninth of His present Majesty, of Sixpence each Letter, One Shilling Double, One Shilling and Sixpence Treble, and so on in Proportion, will be demanded upon all Letters addressed to Officers and others, but those directed to Private Soldiers and Sailors will be forwarded for One Penny each single Letter, under the Act of the Thirty-fifth of His present Majesty.

And that Newspapers will also be forwarded at a Rate of Threepence upon each, provided such Paper is sent without Cover, or in Covers open at the Sides.

Two Mails from the Army may be expected to arrive in each Week.

By Command of His Majesty's Postmaster-General,
Francis Freeling, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
September 21, 1799.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters'-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 11th Day of December next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms and other Estates will be let on Leases, to commence upon the Days and for the Terms of Years hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, Scremerston Town Farm, Moor Farm, Inland Pasture Farm, and Borewell Farm, in the Chapelry of Ancroft, and a House and Premises at Tweedmouth, and Fisheries, Fishing Shields, and Appurtenances, in the Chapelries of Tweedmouth and Ancroft, and County of Durham; Whittle Farm, and Whittle Mill and Ground, in the Parish of Ovingham, Newtonhall North Farm, and Newtonhall South Farm, in the Parish of Bywell Saint Peter, Nisstone Rig Farm, (suitable Houses will be built upon this Farm,) Part of Langley South Common, lately divided, in the Parish of Warden, and Staples South Farm, in the Parish of Hexham, in the County of Northumberland; and several Parcels of Lowbyer Estate, Alston Mill, Alston Tithes, and the Waifs and Estrays of the Manor of Alston Moor, in the Parish of Alston, and County of Cumberland.

The Farms, &c. at Scremerston and Tweedmouth, Whittle, Newtonhall, Nisstone Rig, and Lowbyer, and also Alston Mill, will be let on Leases for Twenty-one Years, and Staples South Farm for Nine Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1800; and Alston Tithes (reserving the Tithes of Tynhead Farm and Lowbyer,) for Seven Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of July 1800.

Such Persons as may be desirous of taking any of the abovementioned Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Ibbetson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 11th Day of December next, or on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Saliers'-Hall, in London; after which Hour no Proposal will be received.

Plans of the Farms at Scremerston will be left at the Hen and Chickens, in Berwick, at the New Inn at Cheshwick, near Scremerston; with Mr. James Young, of Catchlaw Crag, at Scremerston, who will shew the Farms; and at Mrs. Macdonald's, in Belford: and for Particulars concerning the said Farms, apply to Mr. John Dinning, at Newlands, near Belford. Mr. William Jobling, of Newtonhall, will shew the Estates at Whittle and Newtonhall; Mr. William Coats, of Haydon Bridge, the Farm at Nillstone Rig; Mr. George Sample, of Highwood, that of Staples South Farm; and Mr. John Dickinson, of Lowbyer, the Parcels of Ground and Housing at Lowbyer and Allston Mill; and he will also give the necessary Information respecting the Tithes, and Waifs, and Estrays.

Messrs. Walton and Turner, upon being applied to at their Office, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further Particulars which it may be proper to require.

No Allowance will be made on Account of any Ground which may be occupied in Whittle and Newtonhall for the proposed Turnpike Road.

HIS Majesty, by His Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal, has been graciously pleased to grant to William Bolts, of Aldgate, London, Gentleman, the exclusive Privilege, for Fourteen Years, of exercising his "Invention for improving the Form, Quality, and Use of Candles, and other Lights made of Tallow, Wax, Spermaceti, or any other solid inflammable Substances;" whereby such Lights or Candles, besides being equally cheap, have the following Advantages over common ones:

1. Of being rendered much more hard, solid, and white.
2. Of burning free from the Inconvenience of Smoke, and from the Defects called Thieves and Guttering.
3. Of lessening the Danger from Fire, by going out the instant they fall.
4. Of always giving a more brilliant, steady, and equal Light.
5. Of never requiring to be snuffed.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Mr. Richard Church, late of Martin's-Lane, Cannon-Street, in the City of London, Fish-Salesman, deceased, are desired forthwith to pay their respective Debts to Mrs. Church, of Martin's-Lane aforesaid, the Executrix of the said Mr. Church: and all Persons having any Demand on the said Deceased's Estate are requested to send an Account thereof to the said Mrs. Church.
